Eclipse Day at

Oakcreek...Viewing together, amazed by crescent shadows and delighted by homemade moon pies. "It's good to be an Earthling" by David Von Drehle, "Such a surge of emotion swept over us there in the dark, something primal and essentially human connecting us to one another and to all of humankind, from the Stonehenge erectors marking the solstice to the sun worshippers of ancient Egypt. We were, to borrow from the poet William Wordsworth, 'surprised by joy.' We were elated in the original sense of the word, raised for a moment above ourselves. I hope to hold onto that sense of blessing. What a treasure it is to be a passenger on this miracle planet..."

LONELINESS DOESN'T ALWAYS STEM FROM BEING ALONE. FOR ARCHITECT GRACE KIM, LONELINESS IS A FUNCTION OF HOW SOCIALLY CONNECTED WE FEEL TO THE PEOPLE AROUND US--AND IT'S OFTEN THE RESULT OF THE HOMES WE LIVE IN. SHE SHARES AN AGE-OLD ANTIDOTE TO ISOLATION: COHOUSING, A WAY OF LIVING WHERE PEOPLE CHOOSE TO SHARE SPACE WITH THEIR NEIGHBORS, GET TO KNOW THEM, AND LOOK AFTER THEM. RETHINK YOUR HOME AND HOW YOU LIVE IN IT WITH THIS EYE-OPENING TALK.

WE MOVED INTO OUR OAKCREEK HOMES 5 YEARS AGO THIS OCTOBER. TIME DOES FLY WHEN YOU'RE HAVING A GOOD TIME. WE HAVE LEARNED A LOT ABOUT LIVING IN AND MANAGING A COMMUNITY OF FRIENDS AND GOOD NEIGHBORS. WOOD IS THE TRADITIONAL GIFT FOR 5th ANNIVERSARIES. PLEASE DON'T BRING US ANY. WE WILL RETHINK THE GIFT THING ON OUR SILVER ANNIVERSARY.
