WE HAD A LOT OF GRANDCHILDREN VISITING THIS SUMMER. GRANDMAS, GRANDPAS, MOMS, DADS AND KIDS ENJOYED A TRIP TO LOST CREEK SAFARI. EVEN CHERYL (& BONNIE) TOUCHED THE SNAKE.

A LESSON FROM BIKE RIDING

By Julie Kelly

Some of you might not be able to relate to this. Especially if you've never been on a long bike ride. I hope, however, that you will understand the concept with experiences of your own life.

My husband and I have been married 43 years. It has been a good marriage and we have been a good team. My life has been better because of him, and his because of me. One of these ways has been with athletic activities. He got me into running, and I got him into bike riding. These days, one day we run, and the one day we ride. It's riding.....

A REALLY GENEROUS OWNER DONATED THIS FABULOUS DECK TO THE COMMUNITY

Mike & Julie entertained with some great music and then we enjoyed telling stories and eating homemade ice cream!

STEVE ENTERTAINS AS JOHN UNCOVERS ICE CREAM WITH A FLOURISH!

A BALANCE OF REST AND WORK

WHAT CPAs NEED TO KNOW ABOUT A GROWING HOUSING OPTION

BY SARAH OVASKA

THIS ARTICLE APPEARED IN THE JOURNAL OF ACCOUNTANCY
JULY 2018

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW
ABOUT A GROWING HOUSING
OPTION (COHOUSING) IS IT'S NOT NECESSARILY ABOUT SAVING
FOR A RAINY DAY. BE OUT-OF-
DENIAL ABOUT AGING, KNOW
YOUR OPTIONS, AND BE PROACTIVE.
