~ Seasonal Splendors ~

From winter ...

We only had ONE snowfall this past winter, but it was a doozy! The fox pair seemed to enjoy it, Bob R. was able to ski across Oakcreek, and Sue posted a sweet "thank you" note on her door to other neighbors who were shoveling us out of the January "snowpocalypse" :-)

... to Spring!

Food Fun

Karen and Audrey show off their Groundhog Cupcakes (yum!), when a common meal happened to fall on Punxsutawney Phil's special day.

Chef (and resident) Miriam recreated the Shrimp Ceviche dish a bunch of us enjoyed in Ecuador for one of our post-trip common meals. (More on that trip further below ...)

Oakcreek hosts OSU Honors Students

Course Name: Active Aging for L.I.F.E.

L.I.F.E. = longevity, independence, fitness and engagement.

We always enjoy hosting the students in the spring, who get the chance to learn about cohousing, see our homes and common areas, and hear from us about aging well in community.

March 11th - Oakcreek's House Concert

We sold out our 50 tickets and the JohnSmith concert was enjoyed by everyone in attendance. We had visitors from Heartwood Cohousing in Tulsa and from as far away as Minnesota!

Celebrating Poetry

We give thanks to Nadine, who frequently reminds us of special (or cute or funny or odd) days to celebrate. In honor of World Poetry Day, numerous members submitted their favorite poems, and Nadine printed and posted them for us all to enjoy.

Oakcreekers on the Go!

From Ecuador to Barbados to Africa and China, Oakcreek members enjoy exploring our world. But Ecuador was special, as eight of us (plus five friends and family) went as a group on an itinerary designed by member Sue, taking over an entire small all-inclusive resort.

Group Trip to Ecuador

Highlights: Pat walking the Equator, Hummingbird cafe, Las Terrazas de Dana staff welcome.

Resort meals, Coffee & Chocolate Tour, Orchids

Butterfly Habitat, Birds, and Volcanoes. (So, SO many birds!)

Oklahoma is OK, but...
Stillwater is Stellar!

Block 34 is a lovely new outdoor event area downtown, just 5 minutes from Oakcreek. Recently we (and a couple of hundred others) enjoyed a free concert by the OSU Symphony Orchestra.

Did you know that you can fly commercial directly into Stillwater? Oakcreek is a convenient 5-minute drive from the Stillwater Municipal Airport. Currently there are two American Airlines flights per day that go directly to DFW (Dallas - Fort Worth) International Airport, where you can then travel anywhere!

Did you notice what the two items above have in common? They're both only FIVE minutes from Oakcreek! When you move here from a large metro area, one of the first perks you notice about Stillwater is that virtually everything you need (and most of what you want) is only 5 to 10 minutes away.

'University towns' punch way above their weight when it comes to nearby amenities!

OKLAHOMA is more than OK!

Oklahoma City is just an hour away, and has numerous cultural attractions, among them the OKC Museum of Art.

~ COME VISIT ~

As always, Oakcreek would love to have you visit. Just contact us to schedule a time. If you have an interest in hearing more about Oakcreek and cohousing in general, please ask to be placed on our Interested List. You will receive more detailed information about life at Oakcreek, and will be among the first to hear about available homes. If you're already receiving Interested List mailings, there's no need to re-list yourself.
